Just beginning my adventure in this position, I was integrated into the development team of an e-commerce in which I have actively participated in the integration of the following characteristics:

- Stripe Payment Integration: Seamless integration of Stripe for secure online payments.
- Product Catalog Management: Development of an intuitive interface for managing a vast product catalog.js: Improved SEO and performance through server-side rendering with Next.js
- Responsive Design: Creation of a responsive and visually appealing storefront using Tailwind CSS.
